

Louella's Movie-Go-Round 'Sombbrero' to Star Montalban, Charisse, Gassman and Lamas

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
HOLLYWOOD, April 22 (INS)—Shelley Winters' boyfriend, Vittorio Gassman, has himself a long-term contract at MGM. It has all that is the first picture on the program for Gassman not to do "The Glass Wall," an independent, first announced for which was originally bought for him. But here's what has not been printed:
Gable, who is now free, having been divorced by Sylvia on Monday in the handsome day, leave for Paris May 1. Del-Roman are Ricardo Montalban, mer Daves, the director, left Mont-Fernando Lamas, Cyd Charisse day for Paris. Clark will go to and possibly Ava Gardner. That Africa for "Mogambo" later, so he'll be away a long, long time.
MGM bosses are talking to Ava now about it.
Shelley didn't have to work. "Tribby" is certainly being revived with a vengeance. Only two weeks ago, Jack Warner announced that his studio would do a remake of the Du Maurier classic. Now a London outfit, Remington Pictures, by way of Alex Gordon, its vice-president, announced that they, too, will do a presentation of the girl with the beautiful voice and the big feet.

Marilyn Maxwell's slogan, "While They're Fighting, You Keep Writing" has so interested Postmaster Michael Fanning that he forwarded it to Washington. He believes this will inspire more letter writing to our armed forces in Korea.
Not so long ago Marilyn was in Korea and she knows how much it means to the boys to get mail from home.

Strictly for the laughs—what else?—Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy are doing "Carmen" for the Scala Company in Rome and were just back from Palm Springs

Public Accountants Elect New Officers

New officers were elected Monday night by members of the Albuquerque chapter of public accountants.
They are Don Moye, president; Gunnar M. Eide, vice-president; and W. B. Reynolds, secretary-treasurer. Outgoing officers in the respective offices were Gene Malchow, Maude Doyle, and Edwin B. Goff.
A report on the forthcoming annual convention of the New Mexico Society of Public Accountants was given by Thomas E. Hopkins, president of the society, and R. H. Pooler, secretary. The convention will be in Albuquerque May 23 and 24.

where they took all four children. The kids saw Papa for the first time in a movie at a preview of "Son of Paleface."
That's all today. See you tomorrow.
